

1940.

* * *

The day after three members of the Assassination Information Bureau met with about 15 members of the Globe's editorial department, showed the Zapruder film of the JFK assassination and answered questions, Executive Editor Bob Healy wrote a column urging that the investigation be reopened and the paper assigned national reporter Jack Thomas, on an unlimited budget, to investigate.

BOSTON
PHOENIX
6/3/75